Mr. B. Johnson Barbour's Letter. Mr. B. Johnson Barbour, of Orange county, has written a letter to the Richmond Enquirer, on the condition of the country, in which, after stating his original opposition to secession, and the disappointment he has experienced at the results since the war, in consequence of the course of the Radical party, he goes on to say This, however, is as nothing compared with the effort to place the Southern States under Negro Domination—an outrage so foul as to justify us in denouncing it as the master-crime of the nineteenth century; and I cannot understand how any Southern man could sympathize with a party which has either through hate, tanaticism or folly, inaugurated a scheme filled with certain danger, and, perhaps, fraught with unutterable woe to the two races, and ultimately to the whole nation.

The dread experiment is upon us, and our hest and only hope is that when the mad career of Radicalism has met its logical fate and an imperial master steps upon the scene, he will separate these hostile elements and remand the negro to his own continent, or to some home provided by the nation. Justice to the white race and mercy to the negro alike declare that this is the only remedy which can prevent an appalling catastrophe. To keep the two races in juxtaposition, and on a social and political equality, is simply impossible. It is not on account of his color that we declare assocause it is the index of an irreconcileable and tagonism. Rome, England, Russia, could free their slaves at one blow, for however debased, they were of the same race and had the germ of congenial civilization; but here it is impossible. The two races are entirely distinct, and God has sealed the inferior one to a separate civilization, and man cannot join together whom God hath put asunder. The negroes themselves, both in their speeches in the Convention and in the hideous constitution they have put forth, display this consciousness. They evince an unalterable suspicion of the white race of the South, and acknowledge that they cannot stand on the same platform.

I have always deprecated this conflict of mees, but if ignorantly, rashly and under the advice of wicked and deluded men, it must come, there is no course left to any man who would not shame his name and lineage, but to take his position promptly and resolutely in the ranks of his own people, prepared to share their fortunes or to meet their doom.

Of the ultimate result of all this turmoil there can be no doubt. Through what "va-nety of untried being" we must pass before the conclusion I do not dare to prophesy, and still I cannot allow myself to believe that the American people, the representatives of the great Anglo-Saxon race, will consent to pause much longer whilst wicked men or besotted fanatics indulge in this foolish and per-haps fatal episode of Negro Domination. I have an abiding faith that the Union was preserved for a higher, nobler, better purpose than to elevate an inferior race and to crush out a gailant people, and that the time will soon come when we shall no longer be "Condemned as needy suppliants to wait, Whilst women interpose and slaves debate." I cannot believe that God, in his infinite upon the exercise of lawless and unjust power. tice lead the way, and point to the picture of a mighty people reposing in Peace and Prosperi-ty under that grand arch of Empire which, fity upholding the rights and interests of every portion of this great country, shall glow with all the vivid hues of the First promise, and yet stand fast with all the strength of the everlast-

Condensing in a fair free Commonwealth, Not Rash Equality, but Equal Rights— Proportioned like the pillar to the temple, Giving and taking strength reciprocal, And making firm the whole with grace and beauty."

GENTS WANTED FOR THE OFFICIAL HISTORY OF THE WAR, PARTIES.

This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy his position as second officer of the Confederacy. To a public that has been surfeited with apparently similar productions, we promise a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order.—
The Great American War has at last found a historian worthy of its importance, and at whose hands it will receive that moderate, candid and impartial treatment which truth and justice so urgently demand.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS Immediately cured and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety .-Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the he als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured hemselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unlitting them for either business, study, sociely or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory. Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil

Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN, Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thousand the country is a metanochim to be a metanoch This line connects with the line from Pied-
